DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1, 3-6, 8-12, 14, 15, and 18-28 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
 - With respect to claim 1:
 - a. Boyd et al. (6,741,414) discloses controlling the speed of a spindle motor based on a mechanical disturbance (cols. 11/12/13, ll. 54-67/1-67/1-14). Boyd et al. also disclose viscous drag having an effect on the rotational speed (col. 12, ll. 54-58). Dunn et al. (5,473,230) disclose modulating current in reference to a predetermined profile to correct the position error of the head (cols. ¾, ll. 64-67/1-43). However, neither Boyd et al., nor Dunn et al., nor any other Prior Art, discloses modulating current in reference to both a predetermined profile that reduces air bearing instability and an occurrence of interference associated with an undesired air-bearing stability in an interface between a head and a surface.
 - With respect to claims 12, 18, and 19:
 - a. The Prior Art does not disclose the limitations of claims 12, 18, and 19 (see previous office actions).
 - With respect to claim 23:
 - a. The Prior Art discloses modulating current to a voice coil motor (VCM) in a manner that avoids anomalies, thereby reducing wear on a head and the recording medium. See Kim et al. (6,493,173), Byun et al. (2005/0068661), and Rahman (2003/0117906). However, the Prior Art does not disclose modulating current to the spindle motor in a manner that avoids anomalies in the performance of the mass storage device thereby reducing wear on a head and the recording medium.

- With respect to claim 28:

- a. The Prior Art does not disclose a receiver, a determiner, and a generator, with the limitations as claimed (see previous office actions).

3. Therefore, based on the arguments and amendments presented by the Applicant, the Examiner acknowledges the Prior Art fails to make obvious the Applicant's claimed invention.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
